

COME CELEBRATE GIRL SCOUTS 100TH ANNIVERSARY AT THE FLORIDA HISTORIC CAPITOL MUSEUM IN TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Special Event Dates at Historic Capitol of Florida:

Opening Reception of Exhibit: January 12, 2012

Thinking Day: February 4, 2012

Anniversary Celebration: March 10, 2012

Closing of Exhibit: August 5, 2012

Other special events to be announced

Please RSVP as soon as possible but no less than 30 days prior to event by contacting Clarice Dalton at Cdalton@fsu.edu.

Visitors to the Exhibit:

Upon entering the Historic Capitol on the days of scheduled events (and for troops/groups who let us know in advance that they are coming) guest will be greeted by a Girl Scout hostess who will welcome them, have them sign in and give them information on touring our exhibit area and the Florida Historic Capitol Museum in general.

Scavenger Hunt:

This will include our exhibit as well as other areas of the Historic Capitol. It can also be worked in with the school program that is currently in place at the Historic Capitol.

Camping Area within our exhibit area:

There will be a mock campsite with demonstrations and handouts for knot tying, compass games, and a 'nite' eyes activity.

Swaps:

There will be a swap board/area...bring a swap, take a swap.

Poster Contest: (Great Summer Project)

Have your troops take part in a Poster Contest that shows how Girl Scouts have used or contributed to the State Parks. Up to two posters from each council will be selected by the museum's exhibit manager to be rotated at the exhibit at Florida's Historic Capitol Museum. (See poster flyer for more information.)

FLORIDA HISTORIC CAPITOL MUSEUM GIRL SCOUT EVENT SCHEDULE

January 12, 2012--Opening of Exhibit

The Florida Historic Capitol Museum will host a reception to include refreshments for the exhibit opening while visitors tour the exhibit prior to the program. Girl Scouts from the Panhandle will participate in vignettes depicting various Girl Scouts activities.

- Welcome
- Our hostess, portraying Juliette Gordon Low, will give a presentation of the history of Girl Scouting in the House of the Florida Historic Capitol. During the presentation, two large TV sets will display pictures of Girl Scouts young and old in action.
- Singing

February 4, 2012--Thinking Day:

- Welcome
- Our hostess for the event will be Juliette Gordon Low, portrayed by a Girl Scout volunteer.
- Appropriate Thinking Day activities will be available for the girls.
- Singing

March 10, 2012--The Girl Scouts' 100th Anniversary Celebration Program:

- Welcome.
- Our hostess for the event will be Juliette Gordon Low, portrayed by a Girl Scout volunteer.
- Reading of Girl Scouts' Proclamation on Capitol steps.
- Serving of Anniversary cake.
- Singing
- Activities and touring of Historic Capitol
- Scouts Own

August 5, 2012--Closing of Exhibit:

- Welcome
- Our hostess for the event will be Juliette Gordon Low, portrayed by a Girl Scout volunteer.
- Singing
- Appropriate ceremony and activities.
- Scouts Own

NOTE: Information has been forwarded to your Council regarding participation in the Girl Scouts' 100th Anniversary Celebration at the Florida Historic Capitol. The packet, including brochures of places of interest in Tallahassee which your troop might want to visit while in the area, will be mailed. Or check out: www.VisitTallahassee.com.