Sunday, March 12 | Girl Scouts Birthday, Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith, Girl Scout Sunday

Kick off Girl Scout Week by celebrating Girl Scouts' Birthday!

Take a dive into Girl Scout history to learn about some of the first badges that the original 18 Girl Scouts earned in 1912.

Sunday also kicks off our Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith Events that will take place throughout the week! Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith events help Girl Scouts recognize the connections between the Girl Scout promise and law and their own faith, learn more about other faiths different from their own, and to allow Girl Scouts to be recognized in their house of worship. This is also a time to thank faith partners for their support throughout the year, and honor adult volunteers. Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith can be celebrated with any faith partner. 2023 celebration dates include:

- Girl Scout Sunday – Sunday, March 12, 2023
- Girl Scout Jummah – Friday, March 17, 2023
- Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat – Friday, March 17/ Saturday, March 18, 2023

Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith can include participation in worship service, pre-and post-worship events, completing our Child of God council own patch, and service projects!

Monday, March 13th

Make A Difference Monday

Perform a random act of kindness for others and/or participate in a self-care activity for yourself. For inspiration, check out the new Resilient. Ready. Strong. patch program. Plan a service or take action project in your community. Pick up any debris that you see lying around in the park. Have toys or clothes that you don't use anymore? Donate them to a local charity, or volunteer at the charity if time permits.

Tuesday, March 14th

Thankful Tuesday

In honor of Girl Scout Week, we encourage girls to express their gratitude to their favorite Girl Scout volunteers and partners to let them know they're appreciated this and every day! Take some time to create Thank you cards or think of other creative ways to shout out your favorite Girl Scout Volunteer! Don't forget to use #GSCVolunteers.

Wednesday, March 15th

Get Outdoors

Celebrate Girl Scouts in the great outdoors! Getting outside is such an important piece of the Girl Scout experience. What is your favorite way to get outdoors? Here are some ideas to get you inspired to spend some time outside:

- Join in Girl Scouts' mission to protect the planet from the effects of climate change by participating in the Girl Scout Tree Promise.
- Go for a walk or a hike!
- Create a nature scavenger hunt and search your neighborhood with a buddy to find everything on the list.
- Plant a seed or start a garden! In a few months, what you plant might fully bloom.

Thursday, March 16th

Throwback Thursday

What is your favorite Girl Scout memory? Girl Scout Week is a great time to reflect back on all of the things you have accomplished so far as a Girl Scout, and all of the amazing friends you have made along the way! Share your favorite Girl Scout memory on social media using #GSCGirlScoutWeek, so we can see all of the fun and inspiring ways that Girl Scouts have connected throughout the years!

Friday, March 17th

Girl Scout Spirit Day, Girl Scout Jummah, Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat

Show off your Girl Scout pride all day long by wearing your Girl Scout uniform, a favorite Girl Scout t-shirt, or rock some Girl Scout green! Check out the Girl Scout Shop online for new stylish options! Girl Scout Jummah and Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat are part of Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith. Participate in Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith by planning a local event. Work with your house of worship to plan an event for the community or other Girl Scouts that may allow them to learn more about you, your own faith, and Girl Scouting.

Saturday, March 18th

Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat

Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat is part of Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith. One of the best ways to participate in Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith is to plan a local event. Work with your house of worship to plan an event for the community or other Girl Scouts that may allow them to learn more about you, your own faith, and Girl Scouting.
