Roles in the Adult Recognition Process

Nominator - a person who nominates someone who is deserving of recognition. They contact others who would be willing to write endorsement letters to support the nomination. They complete the nomination form and collect the letters of endorsement, turn them in to Citrus Council – Volunteer Recognitions on or before the deadline. Any registered Girl Scout adult may nominate a registered Girl Scout adult for an adult recognition.

Citrus Council Adult Recognition Selection Committee reviews all nominations and documentation submitted by individual Girl Scout members, Service Community Recognitions Task Group, Board members and/or staff. Based on materials submitted, the committee recommends presentation of the awards to the Board of Directors for approval.

The Council Adult Recognition Selection Committee has the right to change the award that a person has been nominated for. For example; a nominee's accomplishments may be such that they warrant either a higher or lower award. Recognitions/Awards to be considered:

- Appreciation Pin
- Honor Pin
- Carol Braby
- Thanks Badge
- Thanks Badge II
- Presidents Award

The Board of Directors make the final decision regarding the presentation of these awards. They also have the right to change a recognition for which a person has been nominated.

Nomination Process: Easy as 1 – 2 – 3!

- 1. Complete the nomination form. Clearly state the personal achievements of the candidate and specifically state the reasons that the candidate's achievements meet the criteria for this particular award. Nomination forms should be neatly printed or typed.
- 2. Recruit additional people to write the required letters of endorsement. Be sure to communicate the deadline for submission, to whom they should return the completed letter, and share the Letter of Endorsement Tips. Letters of Endorsement should be neatly typed or printed. Note: The nominator is not allowed to write letters of endorsement.
- 3. Turn in the entire nomination package on or before December 15th. Send to the service center by mail, email or hand delivered.

Do . . .

- Type your nomination form if possible or legibly print all information using a ballpoint pen with black or blue ink.
- Tell us all you can. The recognition task group can only work with what is in front of them. If you don't tell them about the candidate, they won't know.
- Include personal insights or anecdotes.
- Growth between awards is one of the areas the task group likes to see. Tell how you feel the person has shown growth in her/his contributions to Girl Scouting since their previous award.
- Be results-oriented. Do not say that the candidate is responsible, friendly, etc. – explain their achievement.
- Explain your connection to the candidate. ("I work with her/him in my role as...")

Don't . . .

- Be vague. It is assumed that the candidate is someone you think positively of; otherwise you would not be nominating them.
- Write about the many positions the candidate holds unless you have personal experience working with the candidate.
- Make assumptions about the responsibilities involved with community level positions. Many communities divide duties among people who are willing to do them. What matters most is that the candidate performs above the expectations of the position.
- Just look at the role description and repeat the list of responsibilities – these are expectations of the position, not above and beyond.

Remember – Details are important
