

all the stuff

you want to know

When does my troop meet?

This depends on which troop you select. If you are starting with a new troop, co-leaders work with parents to determine the best day and time for girls to meet. Established troops will be able to let you know when they meet and how often.

What if there isn't a troop nearby that works for us?

We are always working to recruit new troop co-leaders to help us in our mission to make Girl Scouts available to all girls! YOU can help us achieve this goal by registering as a co-leader and starting a troop near you that works for your schedule.

How much does it cost to join?

The annual membership for Girl Scouts is only $25/person.

Are there additional costs?

Uniform pieces and books are not included with your annual membership fee. Supplies vary in cost depending on what you select, and many are not required. Troop dues can vary from $0.50 to $2.00 per meeting depending on the troop.

Where can troops meet?

Troops can meet in a range of places including schools, public facilities, churches, clubhouses, community centers, local parks, businesses, and private homes.

How often will the troop meet?

That depends on the troop. Some troops meet weekly while others meet once or twice a month. The troop co-leaders determine a schedule that works best for them, the girls, and their parents.

Does my child have to join a troop to participate?

Girl Scouts is a journey that is unique for every girl. While most girls join a traditional troop, there are many options available for girls to enjoy Girl Scouts in a way that works best for them. Call or email Customer Care to learn about other options available for your girl.

Do I need to register as an adult?

Yes! As a parent or guardian, it will be important for you to register now so that you can enjoy your girl's Girl Scout experience at the same time. Troops often need parent helpers for chaperoning events, drivers to help transport girls, a chair for the cookie season, and more. By registering now, you will be all set when you are ready to help out.

How much time does it take to volunteer?

Depending on the role you sign-up for, it can vary. Volunteering is up to you! The time commitment depends on the roles. Troop co-leaders may spend several hours per month volunteering while a troop parent helper may only be needed occasionally.
